S. Res 98

To Amend Public Law 96-3.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES
10th of August 2025

Mr. Jsjsjbsd, for himself and on the recommendation and behalf of Mr Detachment_Result and IggysThe_Fool, introduced the following bill; which was referred to the floor of the Senate.

---

A BILL

To Amend Public Law 96-3.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress Assembled.

SECTION 1: SHORT TITLE

- (a) This piece of legislation shall be referred to as the “Speedy Trial Amendment Act” or as “S. 98”.

SECTION 2: GENERAL PROVISIONS

- (a) Any part of any act, joint resolution, memorandum or codified law that conflicts with this act shall be deemed null and void.
- (b) This act shall be severable, in which any provision of this act is found unconstitutional, the rest of the act shall be in full effect unless also found unconstitutional.
- (c) This act shall go into effect immediately upon signing by the President of the United States.

SECTION 3: PROVISIONS

- (a) Certain sections of Public Law 96-3 shall be amended.
  - (i) Title II, Section 202 shall be repealed and the original timeline restored to 60 days.
  - (ii) Title II, Section 203(a) shall be amended to state the following:
    - (1) “No criminal defendant shall face trial in less than three (3) days following a summons being issued and the defendant giving notice to the court of his appearance before them.”
    - (2) Title II, Section 203(a)(i) and (ii) shall remain unchanged.
  - (iii) Title II, Section 204(b) shall be amended to state the following:
    - (1) “A trial must take place within twenty-one (21) days upon receiving a summons from the court of first instance.”
  - (iv) Title II, Section 204(b)(i) shall be amended to state the following:
    - (1) “The court of first instance may deem these rights have been waived by omission if the defense acts in a frivolous, unnecessarily vexatious or bad faith manner in order to delay until it passes the twenty-one (21) day mark.”

(2) Title II, Section 204(b)(i)(1), (ii) and (iii) shall remain unchanged.

SECTION 4: JUSTIFICATION

- (a) Whereas, the current provisions of Public 96-3 set unfair expectations to the Court, its judges, and its attorneys.
- (b) Whereas, a general statute of limitations of thirty (30) days in the environment of nUSA is not necessary.
- (c) Whereas, it is necessary to amend laws that do not fit the current climate of nUSA and does not promote activity nor an effective criminal justice system.
