

PRESIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS

CATEGORY –
Executive Generally

Executive Order 014

Abuse of Authority Directive

Section 1. Purpose

This administration, as part of our agenda to improve and restructure all federal law enforcement, hereby re-establishes in full the following directive for employees of agencies throughout the Executive Branch.

The Abuse of Authority Directive establishes guidelines prohibiting the abuse of in-game mechanics pertaining to that of door cuffing, cuff rushing, door blocking, and taser spamming. These measures are implemented to ensure the roleplay experience between law enforcement and civilians is not ruined.

Section 2. Definitions

(a) Door Cuffing: Door Cuffing is defined as the act of standing behind, or in front of, a door, with the ‘Arrest’ tool equipped.

(b) Cuff Rushing: Cuff Rushing is defined as the act of sprinting to an individual to make an arrest, before utilizing tools provided to them - i.e the ‘Tazer’ tool or any weapons in their inventory.

(c) Door Blocking: Door Blocking is defined as the act of using placeable barriers to obstruct any door or entrance to a building, thereby preventing access or egress.

(d) Taser Spamming: Taser Spamming is defined as the act of repeatedly using tasers on an individual without reasonable cause or justification.

Section 3. Information

(a) The acts of ‘Door Cuffing’, ‘Cuff Rushing’, and ‘Taser Spamming’ are prohibited in full.

(b) The act of ‘Door Blocking’ is only permitted during active security and/or protective details engaged by that of protective agencies. It is otherwise hereby prohibited.

- a. Such protective agencies include the Diplomatic Security Service, the United States Secret Service, and the Defense Force Protection Agency.

Section 4. Enforcement

- (c) Any instances of abuse of authority as outlined within this Executive Order should be reported to the Department of Homeland Security's Investigation Office, found here: <https://discord.gg/6UNeucers7>
- (d) Failure for any law enforcement personnel to comply with this Executive Order and its accompanying information will result in disciplinary action, covering either suspension to termination, as determined by the individual's respective agency or the Homeland Security Investigation Office.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Rathuzen". The script is cursive and fluid, with the letters connected. The "R" is large and loops around, and the "z" has a long, sweeping tail.

President Rathuzen

THE WHITE HOUSE,

May 12, 2025