ESTABLISHMENT OF THE HOMELAND SECURITY COUNCIL

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Establishment. There is established the Homeland Security Council housed in the White House.

(a) The Council shall be composed of not more than 20 members, who shall be appointed by the President. The council may include individuals from outside the Federal Government with relevant experience or subject matter expertise regarding law enforcement. The Council shall also include the following officers, or their designees:

- (i) Secretary of Homeland Security
- (ii) Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation
- (iii) Director of the United States Marshal Service
- (iv) Commanding General of the National Guard
- (v) Chief of the U.S. Capitol Police

(b) The functions of the Council shall be to:

- (i) Act as an advisory committee tasked with handling affairs related to homeland security and improving communication between agency heads and law enforcement executives.

(c) The Commission shall have a Chair and two Vice Chairs, designated by the President from among the members of the Commission. The Chair and Vice Chairs shall work with the Executive Director to convene regular meetings of the Commission, determine its agenda, and direct its work, consistent with this order.

Sec. 2. This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person
