Executive Order 015

Apoliticism Directive

Section 1. Purpose

This administration, as part of our agenda to improve and restructure all federal law enforcement, hereby re-establishes in full the following directive for employees of agencies throughout the Executive Branch.

The Apoliticism Directive ensures that all federal law enforcement, while on-duty, refrain from engaging in political discussions or endorsements, or use their employment/position in a federal agency for political advantage.

Section 2. Information

- (a) While on duty, all federal officers prohibited from engaging in political discussions, advocacy, or endorsements. This includes verbal statements and any form of public expression that could be perceived as partisan while acting in an official capacity.
- (b) All federal officers are not permitted, but not limited to do the following activities while on duty:
 - a. Display political symbols, slogans, or endorsements on uniforms or vehicles
 - b. Express personal political views while interacting with the public in an official capacity.
- (c) No federal officer and/or anyone employed within a federal department is allowed to use their position as a means for political advantage. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - a. The promise of positions, employment, or incentive within a federal department for a political exchange

Section 4. Enforcement

- (a) Any instances of politicism on duty as outlined within this Executive Order should be reported to the Department of Homeland Security's Investigation Office, found here: <https://discord.gg/6UNeucers7>
- (b) Failure for any law enforcement personnel to comply with this Executive Order and its accompanying information will result in disciplinary action, covering either suspension to termination, as determined by the individual's respective agency or the Homeland Security Investigation Office.
