

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

City Council

Ordinance No. 28-0003

Introduced by: Councilman WolfmasterfastJW

An ordinance for an Act entitled: “Establishment of the Office of Activity Management Act”

AN ACT to formally establish the municipal Office of Activity Management. This Act shall set the guidelines and directives to implement this Office into function. The Office of Activity Management shall act as a municipal office under the discretion of the D.C. City Council and the Office of the Mayor to bring player activity to the District of Columbia.

Section 1 – Purpose and Intent

- a. BE IT ENACTED by the City Council of the District of Columbia assembled, that the following new law is hereby established, known as the “Establishment of the Office of Activity Management Act,” which shall be tasked with promoting activity across the various sectors of the municipal government and within the District of Columbia on ROBLOX.
- b. The Office of Activity Management shall act as a statute for activity promotion within less active sectors of the municipal government, to

- host and plan events on behalf of the Mayor of D.C., and to testify before the D.C. City Council for legislative and D.C. activity purposes.
- c. The Office of Activity Management shall be under the direction of the Executive Office of the Mayor. This office shall represent the Mayor in subjects pertaining to the player base and event activity within the District of Columbia on Roblox.

Section 2 – Operative Provisions

- a. There shall be a chain of command from the Office of the Mayor to the interns of the Office of Activity Management:
1. Executive Office of the Mayor:
 - a. Director of the Office of Activity Management
 - b. Deputy Director of the Office of Activity Management
 - c. Chief of Staff of the Office of Activity Management
 - ii. Associate Program Advisors (One Representative from each municipal Dept.)
 - iii. Senior Management Staff
 - iv. Activity Strategy Analysts
 - b. As per the chain of command list above, the Deputy Director, Associate Program Advisors, Senior Management Staff, and Activity Strategy Analysts shall report to the Office Director (and may report to the Chief of Staff at discretion of the Director). The Director of the Office of Activity Management shall report directly to the Mayor, and at times mandated shall report to the D.C. City Council upon request.
 - c. Candidates for the Director and Deputy Director of the Office of Activity Management shall be nominated by the Mayor and confirmed by the D.C. City Council. Only one person may be nominated by the Mayor for the position of Director or Deputy Director of the Office at a time, a hearing shall be mandated to commence within seven days of nomination.

- d. All other positions besides the Director, Deputy Director, and Associate Program Advisors of the Office of Activity Management shall be appointed at discretion of the Mayor of the District of Columbia.
- e. Individual Associate Program Advisors shall be appointed by the Chiefs/heads of their respective departments without confirmation by the D.C. City Council.
- f. Upon vacancy of any nomination-required position within the Office of Activity Management, the incumbent Mayor of D.C. may propose a nomination to fill the vacancy.
- g. There shall be a single Associate Program Advisor for the Office of Activity Management from each municipal department, forming an advisory committee of collective representation from the municipal government.
- h. Senior Management Staff of the Office of Activity Management shall be general staff members of the Office, tasked with arranging and hosting events on the Mayor's behalf.
- i. Activity Strategy Analysts of the Office of Activity Management shall be handpicked analysts to judge activity across various sectors of the municipality. A committee of these analysts shall advise the Mayor on issues and plans relating to activity.
- j. The Office of Activity Management shall be encouraged to detect and bring activity to less active sectors of the municipal government. This shall be done through analytical planning and advisory to the Mayor on future steps to take.
- k. Shall a hearing be deemed necessary by a sitting councilor of the D.C. City Council, they may propose a motion to compel the Office of Activity Management to send a representative from their staff base for a hearing. This motion shall require a majority vote to establish the hearing, and another majority vote shall be required to choose a set time for the hearing within seven days of the first motion.

- l. By discretion of the Mayor of the District of Columbia, any staff member of the Office of Activity Management shall assist in planning D.C. SSUs, Job Fairs, or other municipal events.
- m. By discretion of the Mayor of the District of Columbia, any staff member of the Office of Activity Management may host D.C. or municipal events on the Mayor's behalf.
- n. The Office of Activity Management shall be required to send a representative (may be chosen or changed by the D.C. City Council through majority vote) to testify before the D.C. City Council once every four weeks. The D.C. City Council shall choose a date and time for the hearing to commence.
- o. Any and all staff of the Office of Activity Management besides Associate Program Advisors work at the discretion of the Mayor of the District of Columbia; therefore, the mayor shall have the authority to remove them as they see fit.

Section 3 – Effectiveness

- a. This Act shall take effect immediately upon passage and all provisions of this Act shall be mandated as outlined within its contents.

– END –