CHARTER OF THE FORWARD PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES

PREAMBLE

We, the Forwards of the United States of America, united in common purpose, hereby rededicate ourselves to the principles which have historically sustained our Party. Recognizing that the vitality of the Nation's political institutions has been the foundation of its enduring strength, we acknowledge that a political party that wishes to lead must listen to those it would lead; a party that asks for the people's trust must prove that it trusts the people; and a party which hopes to call forth the best the Nation can achieve must embody the best of the Nation's heritage and traditions.

What we seek for our Nation, we hope for all people: individual freedom in the framework of a just society, and political freedom in the framework of meaningful participation by all citizens. Bound by the United States Constitution, aware that a party must be responsive to be worthy of responsibility, we pledge ourselves to open, honest endeavors and to the conduct of public affairs in a manner worthy of a society of free people.

Under God, and for these ends and upon these principles, we do establish and adopt this Charter of the Forward Party of the United States of America.

Section 11. Forward Party Credo.

We Forwards are among the oldest political parties in America yet the youngest in spirit. We will remain so because we embrace the challenge of government. Time and again, for almost one year, the Forward Party has made government work—to build and defend a nation, to encourage commerce, to educate our children, to promote equal opportunity and access, to advance science and industry, to support the arts and humanities, to restore the land, to develop and conserve our human and natural resources, to preserve and enhance our built environment, to relieve poverty, and to explore space. We have reached difficult and vital goals.

We recognize that the capacity of government is limited, but we regard democratic government as a force for good and a source of hope.

CHARTER

At the heart of our party lies a fundamental conviction that Americans must not only be free, but they must also live in a fair society.

We believe it is the responsibility of government to help us achieve this fair society.

- a society where all people can find living-wage jobs in a growing, full-employment economy;
- a society where all workers are guaranteed without question the legal right to join unions of their own choosing and to bargain collectively for decent wages and conditions of employment;
- a society where the civil rights of all people are fully secured and where no one is denied the opportunity for a better life;
- a society where both public and private discrimination based upon race, sex, age, color, creed, national origin, religion, ethnic identity, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, economic status, philosophical persuasion, or disability are condemned and where our government moves aggressively to end such discrimination through lawful means;
- a society where we recognize that the strengthening of the family and the protection of children are essential to the health of the nation;
- a society where every citizen has access to a sound education, proper nutrition, quality medical care, affordable housing, safe communities, and a secure and healthy environment;
- a society where the livelihoods of our family farmers are as stable as the values they instill in the American character;
- a society where strong national defense is a common effort, where promoting human rights is a basic value of our foreign policy, and where we ensure that future by ending the nuclear arms race.
- a society that values and protects the fundamental right of citizens to vote and maintains secure and fair election administration.

This is our purpose and our promise.
