

CATEGORY –
Executive Generally

Executive Order 009

Establishing the Office of Management and Budget

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, and to consolidate the federal government, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Information

(a) This Order consolidates federal fiscal management functions within the Executive Office of the President to improve oversight, accountability, and coordination of federal financial operations.

(b) There is hereby established within the Executive Office of the President the Office of Management and Budget as the paramount fiscal and budgetary authority of the federal government, the office of management and budget shall:

- a. Superintend the adjustment and preservation of the budget;
- b. Examine and certify all settled allocations and accounts;
- c. Ensure regular and punctual payment of collected funds;
- d. Direct prosecution of officer delinquencies to the Department of Justice; and
- e. Maintain records of all receipts and expenditures.

(c) The Office of Management and Budget shall be headed by the Deputy White House Chief of Staff for Management and Budget and shall Advise the President on major domestic and fiscal policies, moreover they shall develop executive financial and economic policy.

(d) The Department of the Treasury, as established under 31 U.S.C. § 301, and all its sub- entities and agencies are reorganized under the Office of Management and Budget.

- (e) All functions, personnel, assets, and authorities previously vested in the Department of the Treasury are hereby transferred to the Office of Management and Budget.
 - a. The Deputy Chief of Staff shall ensure an orderly transfer of all fiscal and budgetary responsibilities.
- (f) All existing Department of the Treasury regulations, orders, and directives shall remain in effect until modified or terminated by the Office of Management and Budget.
- (g) Nothing in this order shall affect pending Treasury proceedings until reviewed by the new Office leadership. This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "tee" and "semp" on separate lines, with a flourish at the end.

President Teasoups

THE WHITE HOUSE,

December 26, 2024